

Enlighten Continuing Education LLC. Cancellation/Refund policy:

All classes are prepaid and no refunds or transfers to other classes are allowed. If there is a minimum number set for the class and that was not reached you will receive a credit for another class. Please feel free to contact us for more information or questions.

 I (the student) am responsible to find out if a CE class taught by an instructor at Enlighten Continuing Education LLC is accepted by my State Board of Massage Therapy. The instructors at Enlighten Continuing Education LLC are not responsible for any unintentional harm or loss that may occur to me, or my clients, before, during, or after a class. I understand that it is my choice to participate in in any hands on instruction, class activities, and agree to use the information and techniques taught to me in a legal, ethical, and professional matter. I have read the description of this class and understand the regulations of the State I have my license in and I verified the acceptance of the classes by my State Board of Massage Therapy.